Preface

This dictionary covers almost all of the words used in Quran in the form they are used. Meanings of the words are arranged both according to their roots and the way they are used in Quran.

The features of this dictionary are as follows:

- Words are given in the form they are used in Quran.
- The signs (declensions) of the last letters of the words are not usually taken into consideration.
- Words are listed in alphabetical order in Arabic.
- In general, present tenses of the verbs are given together with their past tenses.
- Singular nouns are given with their broken plurals.
- Meanings of the columns are as follows:

English Meaning	Turkish Meaning	Verb Form	Root Letters	Word
You (pl) want, wish	İstersiniz	1	شياً	تَشَاؤُونَ

- For verbs' (منصوب) and (مجرور) forms, the meaning is given as "That he does, that you do". The meanings of such verbs are completed with letters such as (إن، لا، لن، لم، إن) in front of them. For example:

For you (pl) to do	أَنْ تَفْعَلُوا
You (pl) will not do	لَنْ تَفْعَلُوا
You (pl) did not do	لَمْ تَفْعَلُوا
